Woodstock, VA, April 14, 2008: Local fair fans will have a special opportunity to begin a new fair memorabilia collection by purchasing the Fair's 2008 numbered collector's edition basket.

The hard maple baskets feature a brass tag, leather "ear" handles, green and white check liner, and green and white shoestring weave. The baskets, custom made by The American Traditions Basket Company, measure 14.75" x 7.25" x 3.75" and are sold for $42.00 each. "We're excited about Celebrating Kids, Crafts and Critters at this year's fair. We are also excited to offer this year's fair basket at four locations throughout the county." said Fair Manager, Marcy McCann.

She went on to say "The Shenandoah County Fair has been a community source of education and entertainment since 1917. This year we expect over 50 rides and attractions including the Dale Earnhardt Jr. National Guard NASCAR, a 25 foot rock climbing wall and 4-H/FFA scheduled Barn Tours. Entertainment will include Rodney Atkins, Foreigner, Billy Currington and Little Big Town. And although we are offering the fair baskets now, limited quantities may be available during the Fair which runs from August 22nd through the 30th."
