Veteran's Day Planning Committee meets at Shenandoah County Fair Grounds to plan 2010 Veteran's Day Agenda and Activities

On Thursday evening a planning committee consisting of Veteran's of WWII, Korea, Vietnam and the Gulf Wars met with board members and members of the community to plan the Veteran's Day agenda and activities for the 2010 Shenandoah County Fair. Thursday, September 2nd was confirmed as this year's date with the Activities Tent opening at 10:00 am and a Grandstand Ceremony starting at 11:00 am honoring Veterans with distinguished speakers and Veteran's organizations. The guest speaker this year is Major General Walter L Davis. Major General Davis is the Deputy Director of the Army Capabilities Integration Center at Fort Monroe, Virginia.

The chair of the organizing committee for Veteran's Day at the 2010 Shenandoah County Fair is Raymond F. Powell. Mr. Powell is the President of Chapter 936 of Vietnam Veterans of America. Please contact Mr. Powell at rpowell@aol.com or 540-333-0823 if you are interested in participation in the 2010 Veteran's Day activities.

The Shenandoah County Fair is known as Virginia's Friendliest Fair and runs from August 27th through September 4. Features include harness racing, food, rides games, demolition derbies, TNA wrestling and four amazing concerts.
