The Association will do all in its power to prevent injury, loss or damage to all exhibits and arrangements by providing sufficient watchmen, both day and night, but does not assume any liability in case of loss or damage.

Exhibitors should identify their item on the exhibit tag, so that items can be found easily when exhibits are picked up.

Only articles listed in the catalog will be eligible for prizes and ribbons. No exhibit that has been shown in previous years will be accepted. No mailed exhibits will be accepted. All exhibits in Departments G and H must have been harvested in Shenandoah County in 2010.

An appeal from the decision of the Judges may be made to the Executive Committee, and their decision shall be final and binding. No appeal from the decision of a Judge will be considered unless such appeal be made to the Fair Manager in writing, accompanied by a deposit of $10.00, to be retained by the Association in case the decision of the Judge be sustained by the Executive Committee. Any attempt to influence or intimidate a Judge, or any attempt whatsoever to deceive and obtain a premium by misrepresentation shall be reported at once to the Executive Committee. They will order that such exhibitor be excluded from competition at this exhibition, and any premium that may have been awarded him shall be forfeited. When respectfully requested, the Judges are expected to give the reason for their decisions stating what constitutes special points of excellence in the class of animal or article being considered, and pointing out the superiority of one over another. Judges will make their report of awards to the superintendent in charge, properly signed, without delay after awards are made. No award will be made unless quality justifies. Where there is no competition in a class, the judges reserve the right to award the prize the item is worthy of, or if it is not worthy, no prize will be given. The entry books shall not be open to the inspection of any party except Officers of the Fair. No award will be made unless quality justifies. Where there is no competition in a class, the judges reserve the right to award the prize the item is worthy of, or if it is not worthy, no prize will be given.

Notice To All Exhibitors

It is understood that if weather conditions are such that the Fair Association finds they are unable to pay their premiums in full, the exhibitor agrees to accept such a proportion of the premiums as the Board of Directors of the Fair Association find they are able to pay, and such payment shall be considered as full settlement of whatever premiums are due.

All premium checks are VOID if not cashed within sixty (60) days of issue date.
